

PATHWAY TO UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES

The Pathway to Undergraduate Studies is a unique model that pairs English upgrading and undergraduate studies with guided support, offering students an option to upgrade their English proficiency while also starting work toward their intended undergraduate program in the Faculty of their choosing.

The Pathway to Undergraduate Studies is available to students that do not meet the English proficiency requirement for admission to undergraduate studies at KPU (<https://calendar.kpu.ca/admissions/english-proficiency-requirements/>) within the Faculty of Arts, the Faculty of Science & Horticulture, or the Melville School of Business. A student admitted to the Pathway to Undergraduate Studies is required to enroll in English proficiency upgrading courses, and also has the option to complete other upgrading courses or a limited number of undergraduate courses at KPU. The undergraduate courses available to Pathway Students (<https://calendar.kpu.ca/courses-az/#pathwaytext>) will help them advance towards various undergraduate programs and aid their eventual transition to full undergraduate studies. Students interested in upgrading their English proficiency while getting a head-start on undergraduate studies can apply to the Pathway to Undergraduate Studies.

The Pathway to Undergraduate Studies supports both native and non-native English speaking students by offering English Qualifying (ENGQ) courses for native English speaking students and English Language Studies (ELST) courses non-native English speaking students.

For additional information, see the Pathway to Undergraduate Studies' website (<https://www.kpu.ca/pathway/>)
